I am under a cardiologist care still and I'm now in Psychotherapy over this situation I was advised to have the less stressful life I have not looked at any emails or answered phone.

Please accept my apologies. After our last call I have asked wife any contact.

Please send me the form to rehire him and let me know if there's an additional fee to set up the documents which I understand I thoroughly understood that there would be an hourly fee to get ready for court and absolutely if you can negotiate it out of court I would be willing to settle that they have to accept the fact that I have already spoke to the Huntington Police Department about criminal charges and you'll see that on the receipt where I paid as the court ordered and they continue to harass me to put money into a private account cash.

If you have the time this evening we would love to hear from you together on the phone my wife will do the talking
